

Emily McLaughlin
Consul & Trade Commissioner
Consulate General of Canada to Hong Kong & Macao

Emily is the head of the team in Consulate General that covers investment attraction into Canada, financial services, professional services, natural resources, agri-food, fish & seafood, and the drinks sectors. A career foreign service officer, Emily moved to Hong Kong from her previous assignment in London in 2016.

From 2011 to 2016, Emily was Counsellor at the High Commission of Canada to the UK, managing economic and trade policy, investment attraction into Canada, and the financial services sector. She was also Senior Advisor for Innovation in the Calgary Regional Office of Global Affairs Canada and worked as a Trade Commissioner covering the Information & Communications Technologies sector. From 2004 to 2007, Emily was assigned to the Permanent Mission of Canada to the United Nations, New York, where she was responsible for political and security affairs in Africa and Europe. Her roles at headquarters in Ottawa have included assignments to the European Union division, the office of the Secretary of State for Africa, Latin America & the Francophonie, and the Mexico Division.

Emily is married, with two children.